Nurturing Your Child's Curiosity The more curious your child is, the more opportunities there are for learning. To foster lifelong learning, parents and caregivers are encouraged to nurture their children's curiosities. Ways to Nurture Curiosity: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Follow your child's lead - Discuss interest in the world around you - Answer your child's questions simply and clearly and ask them open-ended questions in return such as, "what do you think?", "how did that make you feel?", etc. - Create an environment that is based on your child's interests and encourages exploration, creativity, and self-expression - Plan open-ended activities. Your child's curiosity will guide him or her along. Info gathered from: https://www.zerotothree.org/resources/224-tips-on-nurturing-your-child-s-curiosity					1 Let's learn a song about washing our hands. We can Google search, "Hand Washing Songs for Children" - lots of options to choose from!	2 Check out your local EarlyON Child and Family Centre's website to see all of the different virtual services that are being offered!	3 Try to read to me fifteen minutes per day, whether it is all at once, or little bits throughout each day.
	4 Let's make finger puppets together and create our own puppet show.	5 Ask me why the trees turn colours in the fall. You may be surprised by my response! 	6 Let's play people games today like Ring Around the Rosie, Peek-A-Boo or Hide & Seek.	7 Help me find a way to have fun doing things I don't like to do. Sing! "This is the way we ____, ____, ____. This is the way we ____, we do it everyday" 	8 Give me a new responsibility around the house today. Help me become responsible for that thing each day.	9 I'm learning to make decisions. Offer me choices when possible.	10 Make up a basket with books and put it in a room that does not have any books!
	11 Can we bake something today? Let me do some measuring!	12 Happy Thanksgiving! Let's talk about what we're thankful for today!	13 Bath time! Let's play: "I hear with my little ear, something that starts like /w/!" 	14 Start bedtime a half hour earlier tonight. Slow down all routines, relax into bedtime, and read some good books. Take time to listen and just BE with me.	15 Take a deep breath & LAUGH! Find a ticklish spot, or play a game of chase, & RELEASE SOME STRESS! 	16 Help me use my mind's eye to think & talk about the future. What will tomorrow be like? What did we do yesterday? This helps me when I read stories without pictures later on.	17 At bedtime, help me use my "mind's eye" to talk about what I did today.
	18 Let's find something quiet and relaxing to do tonight to get ready for a big busy week! Go for a walk, rake, or play in some leaves. Turn off the screens!	19 	20 Let's go outside and collect pinecones, stones, twigs, leaves, and acorns. These materials allow me to do the thinking when exploring, building and creating! 	21 Help me learn the names of the trees by looking at their leaves/needles.	22 Let's walk like animals today. This helps me stay calm, alert and ready to learn!	23 Let's make leaf rubbings today...put a leaf under a paper and rub crayon on top. 	24 Read a familiar rhyming book tonight & let me fill in all of the rhyming words. Tell me which words rhyme and why.
	25 Let's get a pumpkin today! 	26 Can we carve a pumpkin today? Let me explore all of it—the inside too. Describe to me what it feels like.	27 Can we put a blanket over our table today? I'll think about what it will turn into!	28 Let's learn some new nursery rhymes!	29 Make limits on my screen time. Set a good example for me. 	30 In the car today, play a game of "My name is ____, I live in ____, and I like to eat ____. Make everything begin with the same SOUND.	31
